Description

Moldovan Agency for Energy Efficiency (AEE) has asked the Embassy of SR in Chisinau, to share experience in the practical implementation of legislation in the field of renewable energy. Moldova currently has prepared a new law on renewable energy sources, which will be effective from 01.01.2017. The practical implementation of this law is linked to a number of other tasks that AEE will have to implement in the near future. It will be necessary above all to prepare related secondary legislation based on the norms of law.
