Description

Overall objective of the action is to contribute to raising public awareness of development issues through anchoring Global Learning in the formal education sector and its better integration into the existing curriculum. Specific objective of the action is, that teachers from secondary schools embed Global Learning into their curriculum subjects in a systematic way.

Action will be focus on the teachers, headmasters, teacher training institutions, education authorities, thus, final beneficiaries will be students of secondary schools. Action estimates 4 main results: 1. An operational framework for the development and delivery of systematic Global Learning in secondary schools. 2. Subject-oriented Global Learning resources are developed for teachers. 3. Teachers have increased confidence and competence to use resources and apply the framework. 4. Established partnership between educational authorities, NGOs and schools that enable delivering quality Global Learning in the classroom.

The results weill be achived via main activities: - development of a framework for Global Learning in secondary schools with analysis of the subject specific curricula and analysis as a first step - developing teaching materials in co-operation with teachers and experts and piloting them in schools - development of the training programme for teachers of selected subjects on how to use new materials - establishing certification scheme for teachers developing and embedding a global dimension in teaching - national conferences to promote the framework and inform teachers and headteachers about Global Learning - international seminars for exchange of good practices and dissemination
