Description

Belarusian Association of Physicians contacted the Slovak Medical Chamber (SLK) with a request to hold a joint meeting (seminar) to share best practice and to sign memorandum on mutual cooperation between both organizations.

Belarusian side had an interest in exchanging experience in the following areas:

1. Providing legal aid to medical personnel.
2. Effect of the Medical Association on the ethical aspects of medical activity.
3. Participation and organization of joint thematic conferences - attendance of medical practitioners, doctors and university students.
4. The role of educational magazines in medical education and professional development of doctors.
5. Experience of Slovak Medical Chamber in providing foreign aid by Slovak medical doctors.
