Description

The project Conflict Resolution in the Context of Development contributes to promoting development education at select universities in Slovakia in an effort to give expertise to university students and internal academic staff in development education topics in the context of the National Strategy for Global Education for 2012 – 2016. The goal of the project is to include the topics of development in the curricula at non-pedagogical universities and to build internal capacities through: 1. Creating conditions for including objectives, principles and topics of development education in the curricula of select universities, 2. Strengthening internal capacities at select universities in the field of development education.
