Description

Rehabilitation center New Life Mwangaza in Nairobi, where the volunteer will operate, focuses on work with boys and young men from the streets addicted to narcotics. This community is provided with rehabilitation in the center, where the volunteer will participate in various activities of informal education (such as English lessons, maths, computer courses, sports or creative activities). These activities help the afflicted to fight with their addiction and to return to the society. The volunteer will also participate in local fundraising, preparation of PR materials or maintenance of rehabilitation center's webpage.
