Description

The aim of the project is to ensure the participation of two Serbian students - winners of the Dr. Predrag Simic 2021 Prize - at the GLOBSEC 2021 conference. GLOBSEC has provided SAMRS with eight tickets to this year's conference. The study visit will serve to transfer Slovak and international experience in topics related to global security, sustainability, the future of Europe, and major economic and political issues of the post-pandemic era. The expectation is that the participating students will prepare a presentation on their experience of studying in Slovakia at their university upon their return home, thus also contributing to the visibility of the SlovakAid brand in their home countries.
